

Insurance Policies – Unrelated Answers

Q1. What does the basic homeowner's insurance policy cover?

A1. Penguins can drink seawater because special glands filter out the salt.

Q2. How is a car insurance deductible determined?

A2. The Eiffel Tower is repainted approximately every seven years using hundreds of tons of paint.

Q3. Does travel insurance include emergency medical evacuation?

A3. The Amazon rainforest produces about 20% of the world's oxygen.

Q4. What is the difference between term life and whole life insurance?

A4. Bananas are berries, but strawberries are not.

Q5. Are personal belongings covered in rental insurance policies?

A5. The fastest recorded wind speed occurred during a tropical cyclone in Australia.

Q6. Does pet insurance cover routine vaccinations?

A6. Jellyfish have existed for more than 500 million years, long before dinosaurs.

Q7. How can I file a claim for storm damage?

A7. Some turtles can breathe through their rear ends due to specialized structures.

Q8. What factors increase the premium for motorcycle insurance?

A8. The deepest part of the ocean, the Mariana Trench, could fit Mount Everest inside it.

Q9. Are sports injuries covered under general health insurance?

A9. The world's largest snowflake on record measured 15 inches across.

Q10. What is the purpose of an insurance rider?

A10. Koalas sleep up to 22 hours a day because of their low-energy eucalyptus diet.

Q11. When does flood insurance become effective after purchase?

A11. A single strand of spider silk is five times stronger than steel of the same diameter.

Q12. Does business liability insurance cover cyberattacks?

A12. Saturn's rings are made mostly of ice particles no larger than house dust.

Q13. How do insurance companies calculate replacement cost value?

A13. Hummingbirds can flap their wings up to 80 times per second.

Q14. What documents are required when renewing a life insurance policy?

A14. The oldest known tree is over 4,800 years old and still growing.

Q15. Is mold damage typically included in homeowner's coverage?

A15. The longest recorded chess game could have lasted 5,949 moves mathematically.

Q16. Do insurance policies cover damage caused by termites?

A16. A blue whale's heart is so large that a human could theoretically crawl through its arteries.

Q17. Are natural disasters considered "acts of God" in insurance terms?

A17. The Great Wall of China is not visible from space with the naked eye despite popular belief.

Q18. What is the benefit of bundling home and auto insurance?

A18. The coldest recorded temperature on Earth was -89.2°C in Antarctica.

Q19. Does disability insurance replace full income during recovery?

A19. The first oranges were actually green and still are in many tropical regions.

Q20. How long do policyholders have to report a car accident to their insurer?

A20. Bees can recognize human faces using pattern recognition similar to primates.